International Conference Scope

The International Conference BE AN ACTIVE CITIZEN will take the form of an Event for Youth and for all those involved and connect to the community. Today, volunteering is not just an option, it has become a necessity. The changing society, confronted with significant challenges, needs active citizens.

This event focuses on making available information related to volunteering as professional experience based on EU legislation, national legislations and also the immediate needs of young people in the field of volunteering. Sections within the conference are aimed at explaining the social relations that can be established in the context of everyday life and encourage young people to engage in debates and in consultative processes regarding the development and the future of youth at national and even the European Union level, by raising the awareness of European citizens on their role in the society.

International Conference Participants

Undergraduate students, master students, PhD students and youth have the possibility to share their ideas, creativity and innovation for significant contribution to the maintenance and development of civic spirit.
