Evaluation appeal procedure for target group selection regarding the Project 15-SEE-PC-RO TIMISOA01

„Opportunities and challenges for tertiary educational system in promoting evidence-informed good governance society - ActiveGovEdu”

Through the selection process, candidates can be declared members of the target group only if they obtain "Yes" to the final criteria awarded by every committee member mentioned in the assessment grid.

Rejected candidates may submit an appeal within 24 hours since the selection lists are made available on the Project's webpage.

Regulations:

1. An appeal must:

- a) be lodged in writing with room P08, no later than 24 h from the publication of the selection lists;
- b) state clearly the applicant's name and title of the position in question;
- c) state the grounds on which the applicant believes that the selection process was irregular or improper.

2. If appeals are submitted, the Project manager will form an Appeal Panel. The Appeal Panel will consist of a Chairman, 2 members and a secretary.

3. The panel will consider the appeal on the basis of the documentation provided by the applicant and the documentation arising out of the selection process.

4. The panel may, if necessary, and at its discretion, examine other relevant documentation or talk to any person, including the applicant.

5. The panel will make a recommendation to the Project manager either that the appeal should be dismissed or upheld. The panel may also make any other recommendation which seems appropriate. When unanimous agreement cannot be achieved a minority report may be submitted.

6. To uphold an appeal, the Project manager must be satisfied that the evaluation process was irregular or improper.
7. The details of each decision will be given to the applicant in writing.
8. The decision of the Appeal Panel is considered final.
